

TAXPAYER ALERT!

Senator JASON PLUMMER is Fighting Back Against $6 BILLION IN NEW TAX HIKES...

This spring, lawmakers and special interest groups pushed over $6 billion in new taxes to fund a nearly 40% increase in state spending over the last six years.

SENATOR PLUMMER OPPOSED...

A $1.50 DELIVERY TAX ON EVERYDAY
necessities like diapers and toothpaste.

A NEW SERVICE TAX ON ESSENTIALS
from oil changes and haircuts to basic home repairs.

A "MOM & POP" DIGITAL ADVERTISING TAX
on services like Facebook Marketplace that small businesses and families rely on.

AND BILLIONS MORE

that would hurt seniors, parents, and job creators across the state.

These tax hike proposals didn't pass this year, but some of them came close to becoming law.

SENATOR PLUMMER IS FIGHTING HARD TO STOP THEM.
